NRRTS Non-discrimination Policy for NRRTS Continuing Education Program (NRRTSCE)

Effective Date: 1 January 2016

Policy: Any individual involved in developing or delivering learning events (webinars, classroom learning event, articles for CEU credit) are prohibited from discrimination or making explicit references of a discriminatory nature based on gender, ethnicity, religion, age, disability, socioeconomic status, and/or sexual orientation.

Purpose: NRRTSCE goal is to provide high quality education for anyone involved in the field of Assistive Technology. Any type of discrimination is counter-productive to that goal and thus will not be tolerated in any form.

RESPONSIBILITY: It is the responsibility of the NRRTSCE Staff to monitor and report any violation of this policy to the Executive Director. All speakers and authors involved with NRRTSCE will be notified of this policy.

PROCESS: Speakers and authors will sign the NRRTSCE Non-discrimination policy prior to CEU approval. Failure to comply with this policy will result in exclusion from any NRRTSCE Program.

Disclosure Policy for NRRTS Continuing Education Program

Effective Date: 1 January 2016

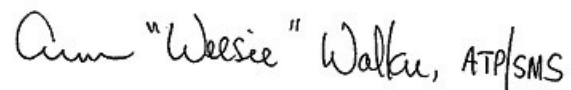

POLICY: Disclosure must be made if a speaker or author has proprietary interest in products, instruments, devices, services or materials discussed in any learning event (webinars, classroom learning event, articles for CEU credit). Any source of compensation must be announced and/or identified in print.

PURPOSE: Disclosure is necessary to insure balance, independence and objectivity. Being affiliated with or employed by a company does not prevent a learning event from taking place. This disclosure makes the learner aware so as to develop their own opinion of the content.

RESPONSIBILITIES: It is the responsibility of the NRRTSCE Staff to monitor and report any violation of this policy to the Executive Director. All speakers and authors involved with NRRTSCE Programs will be notified of this policy.

PROCESS: Speakers and authors will sign the NRRTSCE Disclosure Policy prior to CEU approval. Failure to comply with this policy will result in exclusion from any NRRTSCE Program.
